

Primax Group Contribution List

Primax actively participates in international initiatives, corporate sustainability, and climate change activities in response to climate change issues. Additionally, in pursuit of operational -related businesses, expanding areas of interest, compliance with regulations, fostering partnerships, and talent development, we join public associations relevant to these issues. Primax maintains political neutrality, not endorsing any political party, political movements, organizations, or candidates. We neither engage in nor encourage lobbying activities and do not provide funds for such purposes. All expenditures are directed towards association dues or donations to tax-exempt organizations.
